ACCIDENT INVOLVES FOUR BYU COEDS

Brigham Young University coeds injured Tuesday when their sports car was demolished in a head-on collision. Treated for lacerations at Utah Valley Hospital were Nancy Carter, driver, Las Vegas, Nev.; Judy Upshire, Bountiful; Julie Plewe, also of Las Vegas; and Judy Taggart, Cody, Wyo. The four were later released from the hospital. The collision occurred at 1st West and 3rd North about 2:25 p.m. Drivers of the other two cars involved were unhurt in the accident, in which the Conter car was flipped on its side from one impact and thrown into a third car (shown being towed away). The small car ended up sandwiched between the other two. (Photo by Helio Gonzales)

S. To Fly Ghurkas to Congo Territory

POLDVILLE, The Congo, 15 (UPI)—U. S. Air Force today proceeded with a flight to fly the first tough Gurkhas from India into the Congo for the bitter protests of the President Joseph Kasavubu.

Debate Team Wins Honors Adams Meet

At the first place trophy in the debate team's fast-growing record of forensics honors at the "Top of the Nabe" debate tournament held at State College in Alaska. VE VANDYKE and John Adams won the first place trophy in the senior division by beating the team from Texas University, which had second place in a meet in Arizona. The previous week, Adams and Evan Harrison won second in the junior division.

At individual events, LaRene Adams won the extemporaneous speaking contest, and Sally Adams placed second in the extemp. division. BYU received the sweepstakes trophy for the best overall record of 100 points entered in the meet. TOTAL OF 50 teams from 10 to 10 schools from Texas, Colorado, Kansas and New Mexico, as well as BYU competed in 28 teams in the senior division, 10 in the intermediate division, and nine teams in the novice. Nine teams from BYU were entered. BYU is the only school to have a team in the meet.

live tomorrow, are the vanguard of 4,700 combat-ready Indian troops ordered into the Congo by the United Nations Security Council to carry out military action against rampaging Congolese soldiers, if necessary.

KASAVUBU, president of the newly formed federation of Congo states, charged last night that the U.N.'s decision to send Indian troop reinforcements constituted "unacceptable interference in the Congo's internal affairs."

In two cables to Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld, Kasavubu said the federation "energetically rejects the sending of troops to the Congo of countries whose sole presence is dangerous to the peace and order achieved at the Tansanian conference."

Kasavubu, Katanga president Moise Tshombe and other Congolese leaders recently completed a week-long conference on the island of Madagascar and decided to set up a loose confederation of Congolese states.

CONGOLESE leaders were confident that the federation would restore stability and bring peace to their strife-torn nation.

Kasavubu called on Hammarskjöld to obtain advice from the International Court of Justice for the legality of the U.N. Security Council's resolution Feb. 21 which authorized the use of force to end the fighting in the Congo.

The protests sent to Hammarskjöld were the first official acts of the new federation following the first meeting of the "council of states" in Bakwanga. U. S. Air Force Globe-masters will start bringing in more than 1,000 Indian troops tomorrow morning. Six hundred more soldiers and a million pounds of cargo will arrive Saturday in the massive airlift.

Curtain to Go Up on 'Kiss Me Kate'

Colleen Redford will play Lilli Vanessi (Katherine) and Bill Sego will play Fred Graham (Petruchio), her suitor, in the Brigham Young University Theatre production, "Kiss Me Kate."

It will be presented Wednesday through Saturday at 8:15 p.m. in Smith Auditorium. Supporting actors will be Jeff Willis as Harry Trevor (Baptista), Diane Heder as Lois Lane (Binco), Harold Oaks as Ralph (stage manager), Mel Gish as Bill Calhoun (Lucenio), Roger Clark as first suitor (Gremio), and Glen Smith as second suitor (Hortensio). Some players act double-roles because the comedy is a play within a play. Others are Hatti, Alice Kay Hildebrand, Paul, Stan Parkinson; Harrison Howell, Richard

H. Hienstrom; stage doorman, George Andrews; cab driver, Joe Ritz; and two men, Elaine Quarnstrom and Brent Shaw. "Kiss Me Kate" ran for more than six years on Broadway. It was also made into a movie.

Its story is that of a group of actors who, while presenting "Taming of the Shrew," discover their lives somewhat parallel those of the characters they portray in the Shakespearean work.

Assisting with the production are Millie Waldvogel, assistant director; Brandt Curtis, chorus director; and Diane Chatwin and Karen Grummett, choreography.

Others are Charles Henson, sets and Carol Miehle, costumes.

Girls Get Applications For '61-62 AWS Council

Girls interested in working on the Associated Women Students Activities Council for next year can pick up applications in the AWS office, basement Student Service Center.

"WE WANT girls who are interested in working with the women at Brigham Young University and who are enthusiastic, reliable and friendly," said Margie Light, AWS president-elect.

The Activities Council is composed of a group of girls with each girl in charge of a specific activity. These activities include Women's Week, Preference Ball, Mothers' Reception, Christmas Drive and others. WHEN A GIRL picks up her application, she can sign for an interview time on a sign-up sheet on the IOC bulletin board. Interviews will begin Thursday at 8 p.m.

"Girls who are chosen for the council will have opportunities for leadership, meeting others, gaining a better understanding of student government and a chance to help girls feel more a part of BYU," said Miss Light.

Brooks, Writer, Speaks Tonight At Social Meet

Juanita Brooks, prominent Utah writer, will address faculty members and students at the BYU English Dept. annual Speaker-Social Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Smith Banquet Hall.

Mrs. Brooks, an accomplished research scholar, is also well known as teacher, historian and lecturer. Her essays have appeared in national periodicals; two of her books are "Mountain Shadow: Measure" and "The Journals of John D. Lee."

A SPECIAL invitation has been extended to Utah County public school English teachers and their partners. Although the meeting will be particularly interesting to English teachers and English majors, all interested persons are welcome.

Light refreshments will be served following the lecture. No admission will be charged.

Application blanks for AMS Council positions can be picked up in the AMS office. Interviews will be scheduled for the coming week, starting Monday.

TO QUALIFY students must have a 2.5 grade point average and some organizational experience.

Council members will have an opportunity to work in student government and thereby gain experience in leadership. AMS participates in such projects as "W" Day, Winter Carnival and Fife Nite.

National College Public Relations Body Elects Y's Whetten to Board of Trustees

BYU public relations director Lester B. Whetten has been elected to the national Board of Trustees of the American College Public Relations Association.

WORD OF the election was received at BYU from Rial Lake, secretary of the Rocky Mountain District of the Association. Mr. Lake conducted the poll of public relations officers in the mountain states.

Whetten is currently serving as president of the Rocky Mountain District and was chairman of the program committee for a recent convention.

at Albuquerque. He is also a member of the program committee for the national convention at Denver in July. FORMERLY director of Snow College and head of the Agriculture Dept. at Mesa College, Whetten became director of public relations in July 1958.

USU Solicits Help To Push G.I. Bill

"Cold War Veterans" at Utah State University are soliciting support in a movement to push through a new G.I. bill for those who do not have the benefit.

THE BILL, being introduced by Sen. Ralph Yarborough (D-Texas), will benefit those who have been in the armed services since 1955.

Utah State students sent a written and signed petition to Sen. Yarborough, announcing their support and the following action: they individually wrote to Utah State Representatives and Senators asking their support of the bill, and they encouraged others to do the same.

SENATE subcommittee hearings on the bill were begun Feb. 1961. Correspondence should be addressed to Sen. Ralph Yarborough, Chairman of the Senate Veterans Affairs Subcommittee, Washington 27, D.C.

Modern English Bible Already Best Seller

by Jay Axelbank Press International
ON, March 14 (UPI)—
In everyday English language of the New Testament published simultaneously in the United States and already is a best seller million copies ordered out the world.

"New English Bible" is ended to replace the Augustine Bible version as standard Bible of English-Protestants. It is desirably for those who difficult to read and under the 350-year-old King James, whose language, phrases feel, is archaic or alien to contemporary

OVER, clerical scholars
gious observers predict controversy over whether the extent the new Bible supplant the authorized ew Bible, appearing un-joint auspices of the major churches of Britain, a generally favored version.

Archbishop of York, Dr.
Dennis, who will become Archbishop of Canten-bury, Primate of England, thought the new scripture help people to under the Bible better.

"I LOOK forward to its frequent use in churches as well as in homes."

The Most Rev. Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, retiring Archbishop of Canterbury, said: "The translators were faced with a task of incredible difficulty. I believe they have performed it triumphantly."

The London Daily Mail said the new Bible was published "so that God can talk to teenagers."

"BIBLE READING becomes easier both physically and mentally when it can be done in the style of the hour," said the Daily Telegraph.

But there was some criticism, mainly that the new translation while gaining in readability over the King James version loses in literary quality.

The Daily Mirror, Britain's largest daily circulation newspaper, asked in a front page article whether parents would teach their children the newly-written version of the Lord's Prayer:

"Our Father in heaven,

"Thy name be hallowed,

"Thy Kingdom come,

"Thy will be done,

"On earth as in heaven.

"Give us today our daily bread,

"Forgive us the wrongs we have done,

"As we have forgiven those who have wronged us,

"And do not bring us to the test,

"But save us from the Evil one."

Socializers Take Over At Lounge

by Bill Adair

Universe Feature Writer
With the construction of the Joseph F. Smith Family Living Center in 1956, Brigham Young University was provided with an all-purpose area for student activities.

Known as the Leah D. Whitson Room, it was an area where students could simultaneously mix two famous and valuable activities of BYU, social life and academic life.

AT LEAST those were the original purpose. Since then, things have changed a bit.

Opinions of students who frequent the lounge indicate that the socializers have excellent opportunities in the area but the scholars now have definite problems.

Reasons for coming to the lounge are varied. One coed classified it a good place to relax and read the newspaper, but added, "After that I go somewhere else if I want to study."

A MAILED student grinned as he explained that his only diversion in the lounge was the noise. He leaned back in one of the soft chairs and held up a copy of "Exodus" saying, "You can even overcome the noise if you get interested in a good book."

A young lady who seemed to have her mind on her studies while her boyfriend ate his lunch commented that she

JUST WALKING

pig, as her part of Toad Week for a social unit.
(Photo by Mets Lerwill)

would be ready to let the socializers take over the lounge if the university would provide more study areas around the campus.
"I just don't have the time to go somewhere else to study when I've only got an hour between classes," she said.

A STUDENT SEATED at one of the two desks provided in the room looked up from his books and said, "Sure it's a good place to study if you want to. Then added, "And if you don't want to study—there are plenty of other things you can do."

Y Schedules Bible Land Tour

Dreams of seeing the Promised Land, wading in the Jordan River and climbing the Mount of Olives can be fulfilled for those who participate in the Bible Lands Tour for the summer of 1961.

Organized by the Brigham
Young University Travel Study Department, the tour will be a 56-day educational tour, according to chairman Robert C. Taylor. It will begin in New York City on July 4. Participants will visit European cities as well as the Holy Land sites and will return to New York Aug. 26.

DIRECTORS of the tour will be Dr. Lynn M. Hilton, chairman of the BYU Adult Education Center in Salt Lake City, and Roy W. Doxey, assistant professor of religion at BYU.

Dr. Hilton recently returned from a six-months study tour of the world, during which he spent considerable time in the Holy Land.

"ANY ADULT who is willing to adhere to the standards of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints during the tour and who wants to enrich his knowledge through travel has been invited to join the tour," Mr. Taylor said. Details may be obtained by writing to BYU Travel Study in Provo.

Tour members will climb pyramids and see sphinxes in Egypt and travel up the Nile River 500 miles to Luxor. The tour will visit Damascus, the Mount of Transfiguration, the Palestinian refugee camp, Jericho, and Bethany. A lengthy stay is planned in Israel, including a two-day visit to the Red Sea.

EUROPEAN countries on the itinerary include England, France, Switzerland, Italy, Greece, Spain and Portugal. Throughout the tour, both LDS historical sites and Biblical remains will be pointed out.

Each program is under the personal management and direction of a member of the BYU faculty.

Track and Field Opens Quest For 7th Straight Crown

Brigham Young University's track coach and team will be aiming for a record tying seventh straight Skyline conference during the 1961 campaign.

THE RECORD is held by Colorado University under the reign of Frank Potts. Colorado won the crown seven years running from 1939 to 1947 with three years out for World War II, during which there were no championships held. Colorado also won the crown in 1957, the last year of the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference, for eight in a row. The record is the seven under Potts and the Skyline Conference.

Brigham Young under coach Clarence Robison has won the track and field laurels for six 1960. The attempt for the seventh straight will probably be the stiffest challenge the Robison men have faced.

NEW MEXICO will undoubtedly be the Cougars' strongest challenger as they reportedly have the strongest team in the history of Skyline. In their first dual meet they swamped New Mexico Western, 120-15. They came in second in a triangular meet with New Mexico Western and Arizona State University. Arizona State bolstered by Maj and Mel Spence, Olympic competitors, won the three way meet with comparative ease.

Early season times and distances would seem to favor the Cougars, as they have turned in better times and distances in a majority of events. The Lobos could upset the Mountain Cats as they have a virtual one-man team in sophomore Adolph Plummer, who rates as one of the nation's best in the 440 yard run and the 220 yard dash. The Lobos also have one of the strongest mile relay teams in the nation.

COACH ROBISON'S men can be expected to take the high jump, where Ed Costa will defend his title, and possibly pole vault, mile run and 100 yard dash. The Cougars will also make themselves known in the hurdles, the broad jump, 440, and mile relay.

Individually the Cougar will have Alton Thygeson and Larry Kelly in the sprints, Gay Deiford in the 440, as well as Dick Heywood in the 440, Larry Schlage and Glade Nixon in the broad jump, and Ray Smith and Lorenzo Griffith in the mile and two-mile, respectively.

ALTON THYGESON — Returning dash man, Alton Thygeson, will be counted on throughout this year by track coach Clarence Robison as the Cougars open their season March 25 against the University of New Mexico, in quest of their seventh straight conference crown. (Photo by Helio Gonzales)

Utah Class B Tourney Opens Today at BYU

Sixteen hopeful teams gather in Provo today for the opening round of the Utah high school class B basketball tournament at the George Albert Smith Fieldhouse.

PLEASANT GROVE Vikings, the second place team in the 1960 tournament, is favored by most of the experts to win the title this year.

The Vikings, led by veteran all-star Keith Allred, won the region seven crown with an unblemished record. Allred, at 6-4, averaged 25 points a game in region competition.

CHARLES Buckner and Paul Miller, two more veterans from last season, will bolster the Vikings' hopes.

Delta, Moab and South Sevier are other teams to watch, judging from their records. Jaub, champion for the last two years, did not qualify for the tournament this year.

THE TOURNAMENT will run four consecutive days with the championship game scheduled Saturday night.

Here is the schedule for Wednesday:
